

AFS Professional Reading Library updated October 15, 2010

Self-Directed Learning is a great way for organizations to support and encourage independent learning AFS Fire Training has established a Professional Reading Library. Soon the collection will be linked on the AFS website under Wildland Fire Training; Other Training. Until then, the collection is listed below. Here's how it will work.

1. Come to Training and checkout a book.
2. Read the book.
3. Return the book
4. If you have had the book for more than a month - check it out again.

This is a self-service system. Please do not abuse it.

If you have additions (books to donate or suggestions for new acquisitions) to the library, please suggest to AFS\_Fire\_Training@ak.blm.gov. If you have a book, or books that you have already "borrowed" from the library - please return them.
